Graphically trace this system to find the image location and estimate the magnification (measure with a ruler). Trace the 3 primary rays and check that they all intersect at the image. You will need to be careful to make this happen.
Graphically trace this system to find the image location and estimate the magnification (measure with a ruler)